

His resolution provides that the sessions of the House and Senate begin at 9 o'clock in the morning and last through until 6 o'clock in the evening, if necessary, with an hour at noon

It is announced at the War Depart-ment that the following named officers Ington Barracks, Washington, D. C.; and Capt. Frederick V. Krug, 20th Infantry, stationed at Honolulu, Hawaii. The above were included in the list of officers examined by the Davis retiring board in this city, because of their failure to qualify for the riding test prescribed by President Roosevelt.

Secretary Taft states that it had been decided to retain Col W. I. Mar.

"My objection is," said the Senator from New Jersey, with mock seriousness, "that it limits the appointing power of the President." The Senators tittered.

"I will say to the Senator from New Jersey that the President was consulted," said Senator Gallinger, "and he is anxious to be relieved of the responsibility."

"Oh, well, then I withdraw the ob-been decided to retain Col. W. I. Mar-shall, Corps of Engineers, on the active list, in charge of harbor improvements of New York for the research of the President wants to yield the power of was fully capable to perform his duties, despite the fact that his size and weight with safety.

The Senate has passed a resolution, tion with a communication. In mov- ment of the seating plan. ing the passage of the resolution, Mr. President Madison, and he asked that lish House of Commons, the transac a portion of one of the President's tion of business would be facilitated.

will address the delegates in the East
Room of the White House March 10.

The other sessions of the congress will be held in the Metropolitan Methodist Episcopal Church, and will be concluded on Alarch 17. Governors of Dearly all the States have consented

Acting under the suggestion of Pres
The other sessions of the congress
will address the delegates in the East
the House, and the consequent crowding back of the members where they ing back of the delegates in the East
will address the delegates in the East
the House And the Consequent crowding back of the members where they ing back of the delegates in the ing back of the members where they
ing back of the delegates in the
ing back of the members where they
ing back of the members where they
ing back of the delegates in the
ing back of the members where they
ing back of the delegates in the ing back of the delegates in
ing back of the delegates in ing back of the delegates in ing

chamber. It is the object of the Capitol engineers to keep the temperature it was taken from New York, says that in the Senate between 71 and 72, and they have been successful.

cowpuncher and experienced builtalo on, which is attributed by officials to the threatening weather.

The President told some of those near him, when it was all ever, that he did not feel tired. A marble-top table once owned by Thomas Jefferson is one of the latest acquisitions to the National Museum. It is the gift of Mrs. Frederic C. Brin-During the Winter the animals will be the latest are again thriving in their native land. The buffaloes have an 8,000-acre fenced park in the Wichita forest in which they can charge and snort. During the Winter the animals will be been without opposition, but it is animals of West Chesters Park 15 and 15 animals will be been without opposition, but it is animals will be been without opposition, but it is animals will be been without opposition. ton, of West Chester, Pa., and is in fed alfalfa hay and protected from the excellent state of preservation. The weather and disease in a number of base of the table is of veneered pine, and the following inscription appears built in the inclosure. In the Spring been without opposition, but it is announced by one William C. Sproul, of Delaware County, Pa., that he will have been and the following inscription appears built in the inclosure. In the Spring Senate against Senator Penrose. on the marble top: "Thomas Jefferson to N. P. Trist, and from him to David Maconkey, Oct. 2, 1849." In her letter donating the table to the museum, Mrs. Brinton says that David Macon-key left the table to his widow, who, letter the table to his widow, who letter the table to his widow. in turn, bequeathed it in 1881 to Mrs. in time they will regain the prowess Brinton, her niece. The marble slab of their forefathers, who were kings of the table was cracked in transit to the museum.

recess in discussing the penal-code the church, big tombstones lying flat, marking the spot where bodies were buried years ago. Many strangers who attend the church during the Summer to see President Roosevelt and his family, who attend church there, were ignorant of the fact that there was a grave-yard under their feet. The rectory building was once used as a barracks by the soldiers during Revolutionary at New York, for the reason that he appointment, the bill ought to pass." It passed.

the recent ride at Fort Myer. Col. who objected to being "shelved" on a Marshall stands ready at any time to committee that couldn't even get per-ride, but so far the Army Quarter-mission of the House to have stationery little more foresighted.

After several years of somnolence declaring that no communication from the Committee on Ventilation and a heads of Departments, chiefs of bu-reaus, or other executive officers will have a number of meetings this year. be received by that body unless they and assume a place of more or less im-passage of the resolution, Mr. There is much agitation for the use office, nor on the floor of the Senate, stated that the relations that of benc es. This is a matter that re- and, as a last resort, the newspaper should exist between the Senate and crived the approval of the late Speaker man tried the Senate restaurant. There Monum the Executive Department of the Government were carefully reviewed by rangement similar to that in the Eng-messages bearing on that subject be incorporated in the record with his remarks.

The plans for the first international converse was a subject of debate during tion of business would be lachitated.

For a long time, there has been dissidual another waiter, who had just come up. "Ah done give the Senator a glass of milk an' a piece ob pie many the season on motion of Service and Dick."

Wha's matter with you, George," said another waiter, who had just come up. "Ah done give the Senator a glass of milk an' a piece ob pie many the season on motion of Service and Dick."

The Senate adjourned at the self, a hour ago."

Wha's matter with you, George," said another waiter, who had just come up. "Ah done give the Senator ing a few weeks in this country. Mrs. The Senate adjourned at the self, a hour ago."

Wha's matter with you, George," said another waiter, who had just come up. "Ah done give the Senator ing a few weeks in this country. Mrs. The Senate adjourned at the self, a hour ago."

Wha's matter with you, George," said another waiter, who had just come up. "Ah done give the Senator ing a few weeks in this country. Mrs. O'Connor was prior to her marriage meet again at noon to-day. House. Plans for the first international congress to consider the welfare of children have been completed here by the executive board of the National Congress, when Representative Crumpacker led in the fight for a new arrangement of seats. He be held here. President Roosevelt made the declaration that it was because of the increased membership of the increased membership of the congress of the congress of the increased membership of the congress of the cong to appoint a delegate, and nearly every ident Roosevelt, the Library of Concivilized country in the world will be gress has started the collection and

The research that this work will require will be a stupendous underaking, as the authorship of many of the popular national songs is not well established. The compilation will include everything from "Yankee fectly as to be a triumph of the car-

A row is brewing in the . Indiana commission which has been named by Goy. Hanly to arrange for placing a statue of the late Gen. Lew Wallace in Statuary Hall at the Capitol. The statue was authorized by the last session of the Indiana Legislature. The commission is divided To a suggestion in many of the papers of the country that he is material for the making of a mighty fine President of the United States, Justice Harian replied that his place is on the Supreme Bench, and that he has no hankering for the Presidency. In other words he is not hunting trouble.

Representative Edwards, of Georgia, thinks Congress has been shirking its duty, and has introduced a resolution which he seems to think would be a remedy for the listlessness that has been pervading the Capitol, which has sussed up nearly all the time since the recess in discussing the penal-code whether the statue should be of bronze or marble, a majority favoring bronze bronze memorial.

to be Indian Territory, are producing would stay a prisoner long, even if he were captured.

Brief Digest of Proceedings from Day to were captured. O'Neill, of Kansas City, Mo., largely interested in the oil industry money out of discarded horseshoes, of the Southwest. "It at present ap-which the average American is wont ment that the following named officers of the Army will be placed on the retired list because of disabilities incurred in the line of duty: Lieut.-Col. John C. Muhlenberg, of the Pay Department, stationed at the Preside of San Francisco; Capt. Solomon P. Vestal, 9th Cav., now in the General Hospital at Fort Bayard, N. M.; Maj. Pierce M. B. Travis, 11th Infantry, now in General Hospital at Fort Bayard, N. M.; Maj. Pierce M. B. Travis, 11th Infantry, now in General Hospital at Washington, D. C.;

"My objection is," said the Senator of the Army will be placed on the red the distorical. It was not long before oil the country, and though there has bluck. According to Vice Consul Vollimer, one of the constavity growing imports into the Chinese province of the product has not fallen so low that it cannot be sold at a profit. We used to read the title of "A bill providing to the constavity growing imports the clark of the constavity growing imports the constant leaving from the constant leaving from the constant leaving for the constant leaving from the constant leaves to individuals in the allotment of banch constant leaving from the constant leaves to individuals in the allotment of Chinese entertaining in the advocacy of the constant leaves to individuals in the allotment of constanting from the constant leaves to individuals in the allotment of Chinese entertaining in the advocacy of the Chinese province of Shantung is old horseshoes. The mark the title of the constant leaves to individuals in the allotment of Chinese that the title of the constant leaves to individuals in the cons in that country, and though there has luck. exhausted, but the end is not to be thought of for many years. Another theory that was exploded long ago was that wherever oil existed coal was also a bill looking to the reduction of the to be found. That the two do not necessarily go together was shown in Ohio, where there were found some of but 35,000 men in the Army, of whom sign of coal.

and there is no particular advantage in they shall be termed emergency offi-using it, except in the shorter hauls. masters have failed to provide a horse printed, and who consequently resigned It is perhaps a cleaner fuel, and it does enough to carry one of his in a huff, will wish they had been a not take up so much room, but that is a minor matter."

Senator William Murray Crane is a born "Yankee," and has all the love of his kind for pie. They are telling a story on him that may or may not be true, but it is pretty good. and was the result of objections made by Senator Heyburn and Senator Hale to the reception by the Senate of bills will probably report out a bill during the reception by the Senate of bills will probably report out a bill during Senate wing of the Capitol for the Bay than $5,000 in the case of death. State Senator. He was not in his office, nor on the floor of the Senate, a glass of milk and a plece of apple to appoint a delegate, and hearly every civilized country in the world will be represented.

Secretary Root has written a formal invitation, copies of which will be distributed by the American Embassics to officials abroad.

A bill granting retiring Presidents the United States a seat in the United States a s

By New Discovery

riage painters' art.

when he met, in the Cape Fear section, a unlovely arch, his head drawn down commission to codify the criminal laws. a tali, lank Highland Scot.

Among the bills that were passed

"Huh! What are you, then?"
"I, suh," replied the stranger, tretching himself proudly to his full hight, "am just a 'damned rebel,' suh, Senator Foraker said he passed on without molesting the man, for he

Over in China they are making pears that there is no limit to the oil to regard only as an omen of good According to Vice Consul Volt-

Pierce M. B. Travis, 11th Infantry, now in General Hospital at Washington Barracks, Washington, D. C.; Wy objection is," said the Senator
State, but it was not long before oil was discovered in Ohio, and now the
was discovered in Ohio, and now the
was discovered in Ohio, and now the
was discovered in given them a peculiar temper, absoing to transport freight when offered production seems to be unlimited in the Southwest. I presume that in the natural course of things oil will be and that tools made from them are superior to all others.

Gen. I. R. Sherwood has introduced the best flowing oil wells and not a 10,000 shall be members of the Coast n of coal.

Artillery. He provides for the reten-Southwest is being refined, but a large Secretary of War, for enough to man journed at 3:22 p. m., to meet again at weight prevented his taking part in the recent ride at Fort Myer. Col. who objected to being "shelved" on a stead of coal. It is not any cheaper, line officers, and the provision is that

He estimated that the reduction ing the bill for the revision of the penal would result in a saving of $20,000,000 code. So far, 45 sections have been annually, which amount he would depassed. There are 342 sections in the vote toward pensioning civil war veterans at the rate of $1 a day. Representative Roberts, of Massa are sent in compliance with law or are transmitted by the President.

The resolution was reported from Pulse by Mr Lodge of the House.

One day not long since Mr. Crane of the search of a newsorth of the seating arrangements on the paper man. Mr. Crane, as Chairman of the seating arrangements on the paper man. Mr. Crane, as Chairman of the seating arrangements on the paper man. Mr. Crane, as Chairman of the Subscription of indiso employed. The bill provides for the viduals for the bonds, payment of not more than $4,000 in Senator Tillman in

> The President has signed a procla mation designating, as a "National Monument" the jagged peaks known as the "Pinnacles," situated in Cali-The peaks will now be protected in > every way from unsightly exploitation.

fashion there and then told them to hike-get right out of his court, as the

Will there be a thinge in the Carlot of U. Highers of the Florar bound of the Carlot of U. Highers of the Florar bound of the Carlot of U. Highers of the Florar bound of the Carlot of U. Highers of the rubber-tired, magnificent broughams, which the officers of that corps command, but it is a maroon that shades into the cbory black so per-

The Sheridan statue people have at last accepted a design. It was stated Here is a war story that Senator Foraker told in the clock room the other day.

Senator Foraker and Senator OverSenator Foraker and Senator OverPhil Sheridan might have been as Senator Foraker and Senator Overman were discussing civil war experiences, and Senator Foraker told how, while he was marching through the South, he took occasion to question a number of stragglers whem he met as to their political status. Invariably, he said, the investigated native declared for the Unión. They were all "Union men."

Phil Sheridan might have been as senate under the new arrangement to consider such bills in bulk.

Mr. Lodge's resolution, reported from the Committee on Rules, designed to their political status. Invariably, which couldn't possibly have been correct of any horse that Sheridan rode during the war. Then the critter stands with all four feet together, as treaty with Spain was ratified. "Union men."
"Union men."
"Union men."
"Union men."
"Union men."
"Stands with all four feet together, as though he had the colic, or was buckling, or he was about to sit down on his hanches, and his neck is bent in the Cane Fear section.

"Union men."

In executive session the extraution treaty with Spain was ratified.

In the open session that followed, the Senate considered the report of the committee to revise the work of the committee to revise the work of the committee to revise the criminal laws. a tall, lank Highland Scot.

"Well," queried the future defender of the Brownsville shooters-up. "how about you? Union man, I suppose?"

"No-o-o, suh!" was the emphatic reply. a bucking broncho, and there is not the remotest resemblance to Sheridan the Commissioners. "Oh; then you must be a secessionist."

the remotest resemblance to Sheridan as he is known in any picture of him extant. It certainly is a crazy looking to meet again at noon on Monday. which is fortunate. It looks like anybody else.

CONGRESS.

Senate. Monday, Jan. 13.-Alleged injustice authorize the President to suspend the tariff on products the control of which is acquired by a trust. Senator Bankhead, of Alabama, successor of the late Senator Morgan, was sworn in as a member.

The Senate, after a short*executive session, took up the bill for the revi-sion of the penal code, and, after considering it for an hour and a half, adand noon to-day.

The House was in Committee of the Whole for about five hours, consider-

Representative Roberts, of Massa- Jan. 14.—The measures taken to chusetts, has introduced a bill providing for the relief of the widows and close of last year were again aired by children of mechanics, laborers, and the Democrats, and Senator Culberson Senator Tillman introduced a resolution calling for information as to the administration of National banks which have failed since 1903. The Scott Bill for the purchase of a site for the proposed building to be occupied by the Departments of State, Justice, and Commerce and Labor was passed without division.

Four nominations of Ohio post-masters, alleged to be adherents of Secretary Taft, were rejected in execu-Mrs. T. P. O'Connor, wife of the tive session on motion of Senators For-The Senate adjourned at 3 p. m. to

After passing two bridge bills and bill providing $601.000 a year rent for the Forest bureau, the House yesterday resolved into the Committee of the Whole for the further consideration of tend a trial in Cleveland the other day of a divorce suit in high life that was a disgrace to the court even. The trial Judge looked round on the feminine FOR HEART DISEASE successfully to remove reconstruction legislation from the statute books. At 5:02 o'clock the House adjourned Senate. Jan. 16 .- A number of bills were passed, including an "omnibus" private pension bill, the first reported to the

At 4:15 p. m. the Senate adjourned

Another session of the House was pent in Committee of the Whole conidering the penalties to be inflicted upon members of Congress for offenses ommitted by them while serving in hat capacity. The proceedings were relieved from tediousness attending the usual discussion of legal matters by a speech from Mr. Gardner, of Massachusetts, who boldly attacked the existing statutes and proposed amendments thereto as being intended to fool the people. Mr. Gaines, of Tennessee, was even more entertaining in the advocacy of

No important change was made in the text of the bill. The House adjourned at 4:06 p. m.

Jan. 17 .- The Senate was not in ses-

House. The House passed 130 pension bills. was the first day of pension legislation this session. Gen. Harries appeared before the District Committee, and again discussed They have cured cases of 40 years'

A subcommittee on the Committee of Appropriations heard War Department officials and the District Commissioners on the subject of emergency appropriations.

The House adjourned at 1:25 until Monday noon.

Corrections. Comrade M. E. Huyette, Buffalo, N.

Y., makes some corrections in the story of the battle of Antietam. In the first place, the Dunker Church was not a wooden structure, but brick. He was in out relief.

Williams's Division of the Twelfth "Magic Foot Drafts cured me entireCorps, and says that the map of the ly. It is a wonderful thing," says Rev. battlefield would indicate that his division did not pass thru the East Woods and no part of it south of the Smoke-town Road, and that in its advance it went between the cornfield and the Miller Building and struck Jones. Facts are that the extreme left of Williams's are that the extreme left of Williams's are that the extreme left of Williams's Division was for a time south of the Smoketown Road. Comrade Huyette lieve you, send us a dollar; if not, don't was the left man of Co. B, 125th Pa., send us a cent. We trust you for a square deal. Don't delay, but send toand it advanced thru the East Woods, square deal. Don't delay, but send to-and after passing into the clover field day for the free trial drafts and also crossed to the south of the Smoketown Road, and did not pass to the north side therefrom until after passing ly. It will cost you nothing to try. Mumma Lane, when they crossed the Hagerstown pike, and was to the right of the Dunker Church.

Our free book which explains clearly why they cure so quickly and theroughly. It will cost you nothing to try. Magic Foot Draft Co., S C 4, Oliver Hagerstown pike, and was to the right of the Dunker Church.

get along on $8 or $12 a month. Many of them are forced to go to the poorhouse, which certainly does not seem right after all they have endured. The little verse written about the soldier, she thinks, applies equally to the "When war was rife And danger nigh, God and the soldier When the war was over And the wrongs were righted, God was forgotten

And the soldier slighted." Robust, Vigorous Men tortured men by Vitae-Ore, the tonic and healer which has cured thousands of men in all parts of the United States, Canada and Great Britain. It is offered on trial, free for the asking. Read advertisement on last page and write for a package of Vitae-Ore today.

The 9th Cons. Editor National Tribune: Please give

of the 9th Conn.-John Klitter, Toledo, O. The 9th Conn. was organized at New Haven Sept. 28, 1861, and finally mustered out Aug. 3, 1865. It was com-manded by Col. Thomas W. Cahill, whose term of service expired Oct. 26, 1864, and at the time of final musterout the regiment, composed then of a battalion of four companies, was un-der the command of Lieut.-Col. John

$1 pair of Magic Foot Drafts, the great Michigan External Rem-

sands - Just

Let us cure your Rheumatism (no matter where located, how severe, or whether it is chronic, acute, muscular, sclatic, lumbago or gout) with our powerful yet harmless Magic Foot Drafts.

hereditary, his brother having died with

Mrs. C. Tena Segoin, Auburn, N. Y., after ten years of suffering and using Magic Foot Drafts cured N. F. Bog-guss, 326 W. 61st St., Chicago, after weeks in expensive sanitariums with-

If you need a Pension Attorney or someone to represent ou before the Government Departments address R. W Shoppell & Co., Washington, D. C., and you will receive prompt and courteous reply. WIDOWS' and MINORS'

G. Healy. It belonged to Grover's Di-vision, Nineteenth Corps, and lost 10 killed and 243 from disease, etc.—Editor National Tribune.

edy, which is curing thou-Send Your Name on a Postal the Union Station trackage bill and the standing where doctors and medicines extension of the car lines. Magic Foot Drafts permanently cured J. Wesley Bennet, Indianapolis, Ind., after 25 years' suffering. Disease trying six doctors and out relief.

Magic Foot Drafts permanently cured

COMRADE:

The Finance Committee meets this CLAIMS a SPECIALTY.